

Finding the middle

In your groups put your heights, widths and lengths into order in a table.

Now find the middle measurement.

Get ready to explain how you worked out the middle to the rest of the class.

What is the range of your results? Do you think this will affect how we find the best desk to fit the class?